

Horsie Named Three

A multi-faceted read-along book
by Robert Andrews

Copyrights 2000-2023

As told to (and named by)
“a three year old” in 1984

This book is dedicated to Robert Bradley Andrews, Jr
(for whom this story was written) who gave Horsie Named
Three his name, and for Bradley's daughter Kate.
Illustrations by Dan Andrews, Bradley's grandfather.

Published by Jessit Publishing

CIP #

ISBN #

This is the English version.

Also available in German, French, Spanish,
Italian, Finnish, Norwegian, Polish, and Swedish

Note to the parents:

Horsie Named Three is more than just a book. It is a multi-faceted adventure, and educational tool.

The colored words in Horsie Named Three can be used in many ways. Each color is geared toward a particular skill level.

Very simple words and repeated words are printed in red, words of medium difficulty are blue, while more difficult words and phrases are green.

You can let your child read the colored words when you come to them, or you can use the story to allow participation of multiple children.

THIS IS THE ABBREVIATED VERSION
WITH THE COLORING BOOK PAGES

You can print out another copy by using the QR code above right, or just by copying this book.

The first four pages are in full color to give you an idea of what the full-color book looks like. Visit www.Jessit.com if you would like to purchase the entire book.

Thank you for using our book to help your child learn and advance.

Once upon a time there was a Horsie Named Three.

Horsie Named Three liked many things.
He liked playing soccer with his friends
cow, pig, duck and dog.
He liked climbing trees.
He liked to go to the zoo.
He liked to listen to music.

There were some things that Horsie Named
Three did not like. - He did not like lima beans.
He did not like to mow the grass. - He did not like the bully that lived down the street.

And most importantly,
because it is the reason for this story,
he did not like to wear shoes.

Only the coloring pages are shown from this point to the end of the book. Visit www.Jessit.com to purchase the entire story book.

Horsie Named Three was a happy horse.

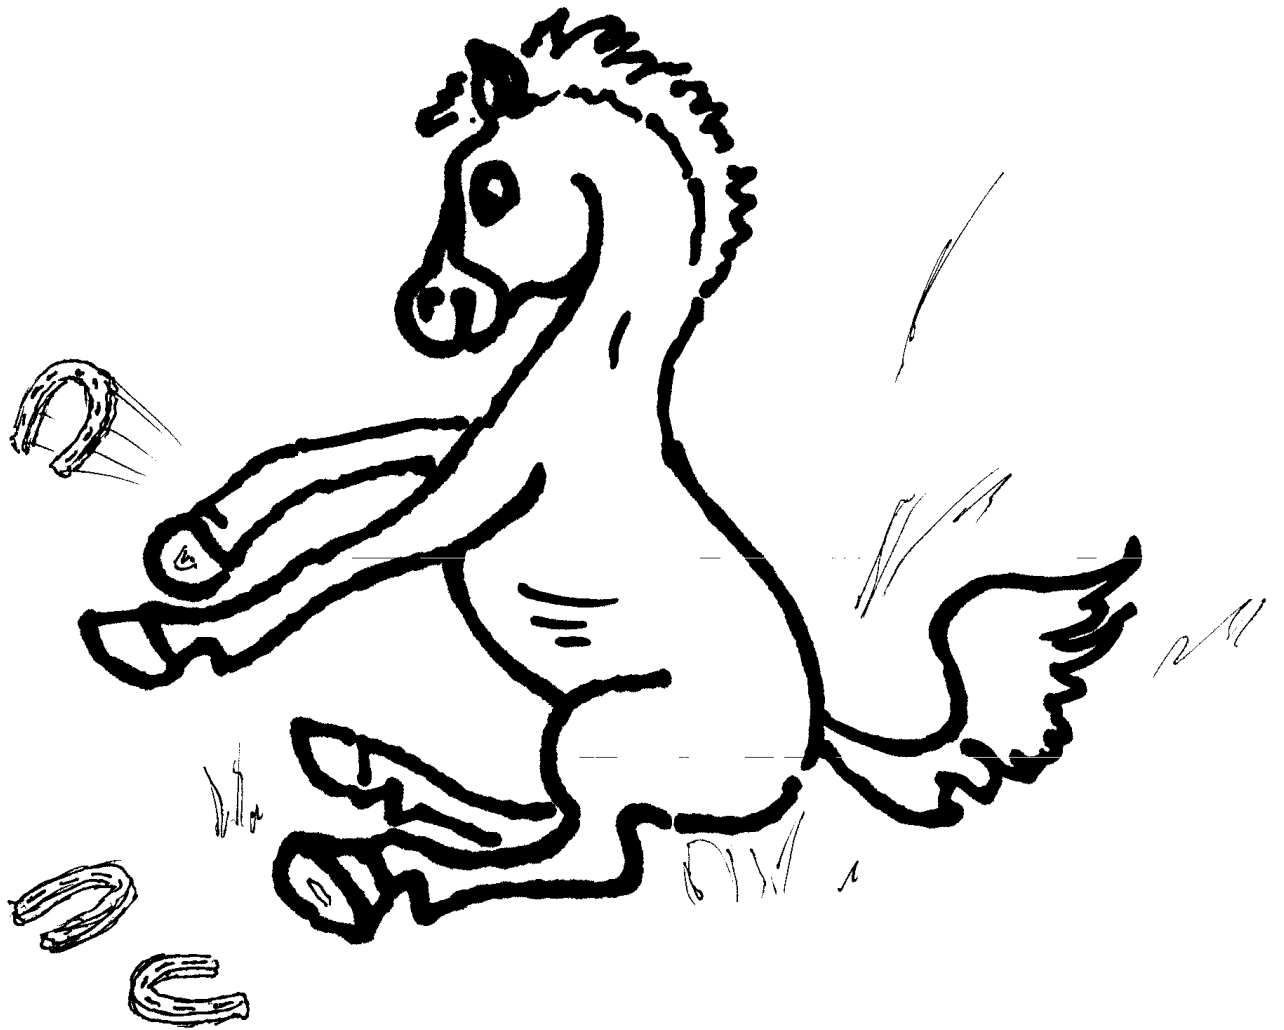

Horsie Named Three had many friends.

Horsie Named Three did not like bullies.

Horsie Named Three did not like to wear shoes.

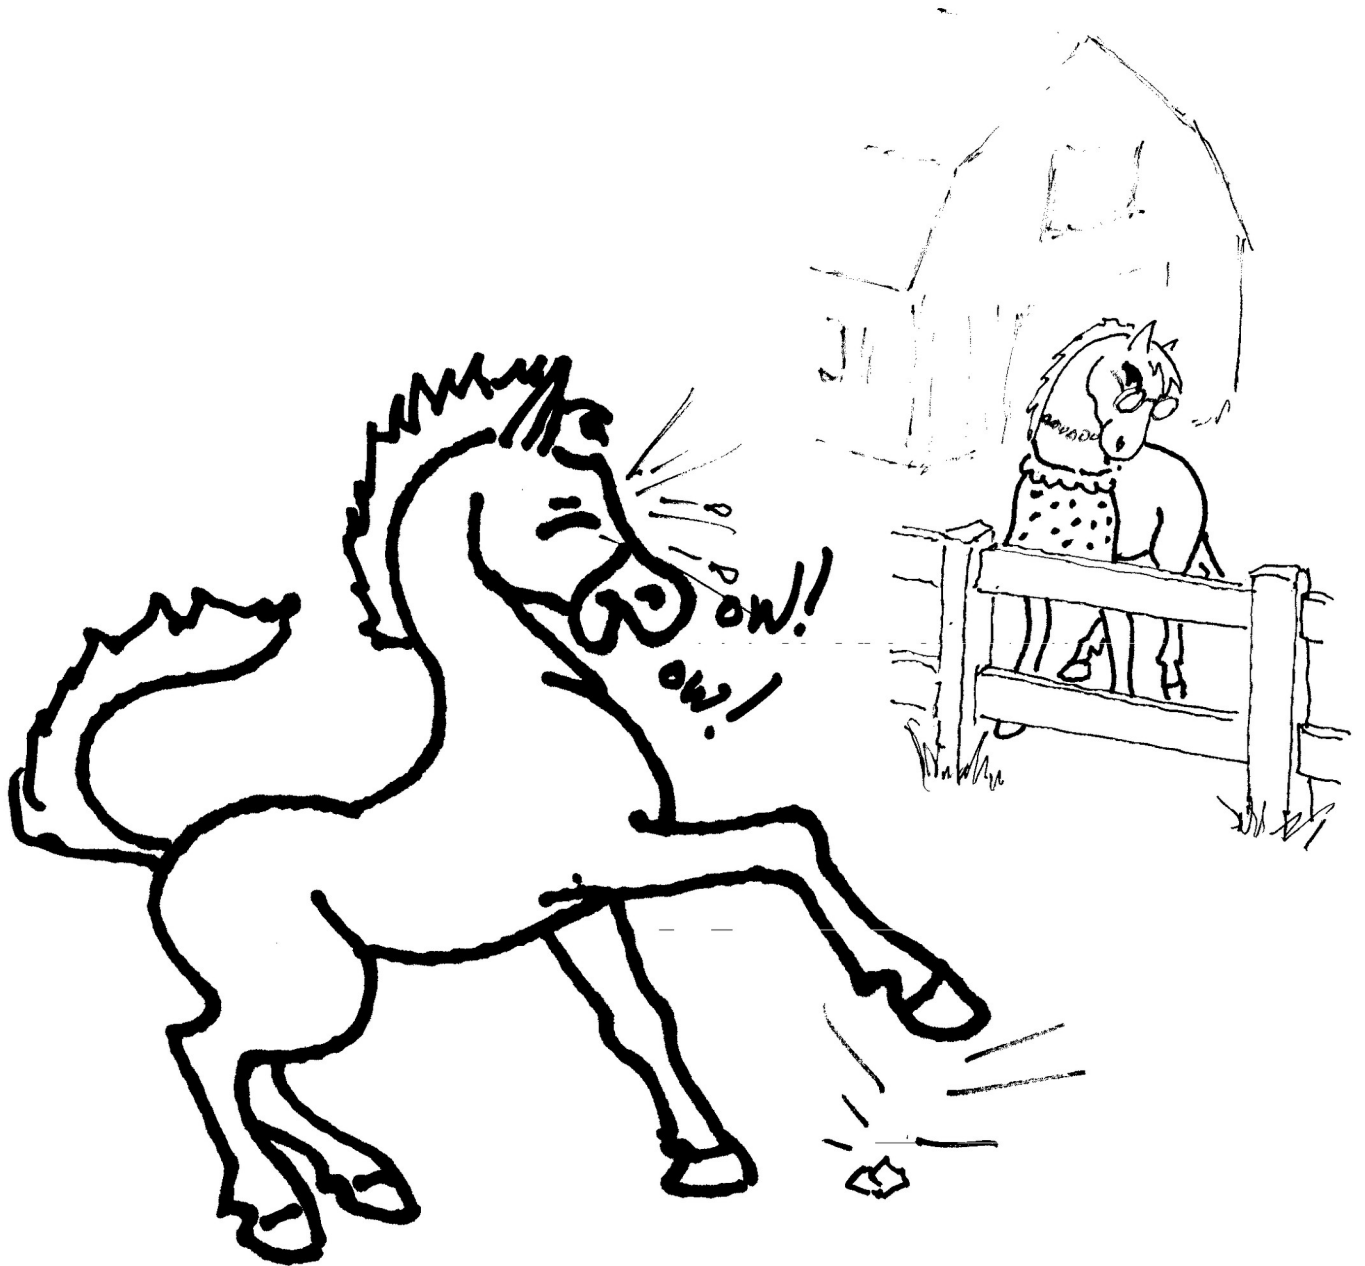

Horsie Named Three had his mind made up.
NO SHOES!

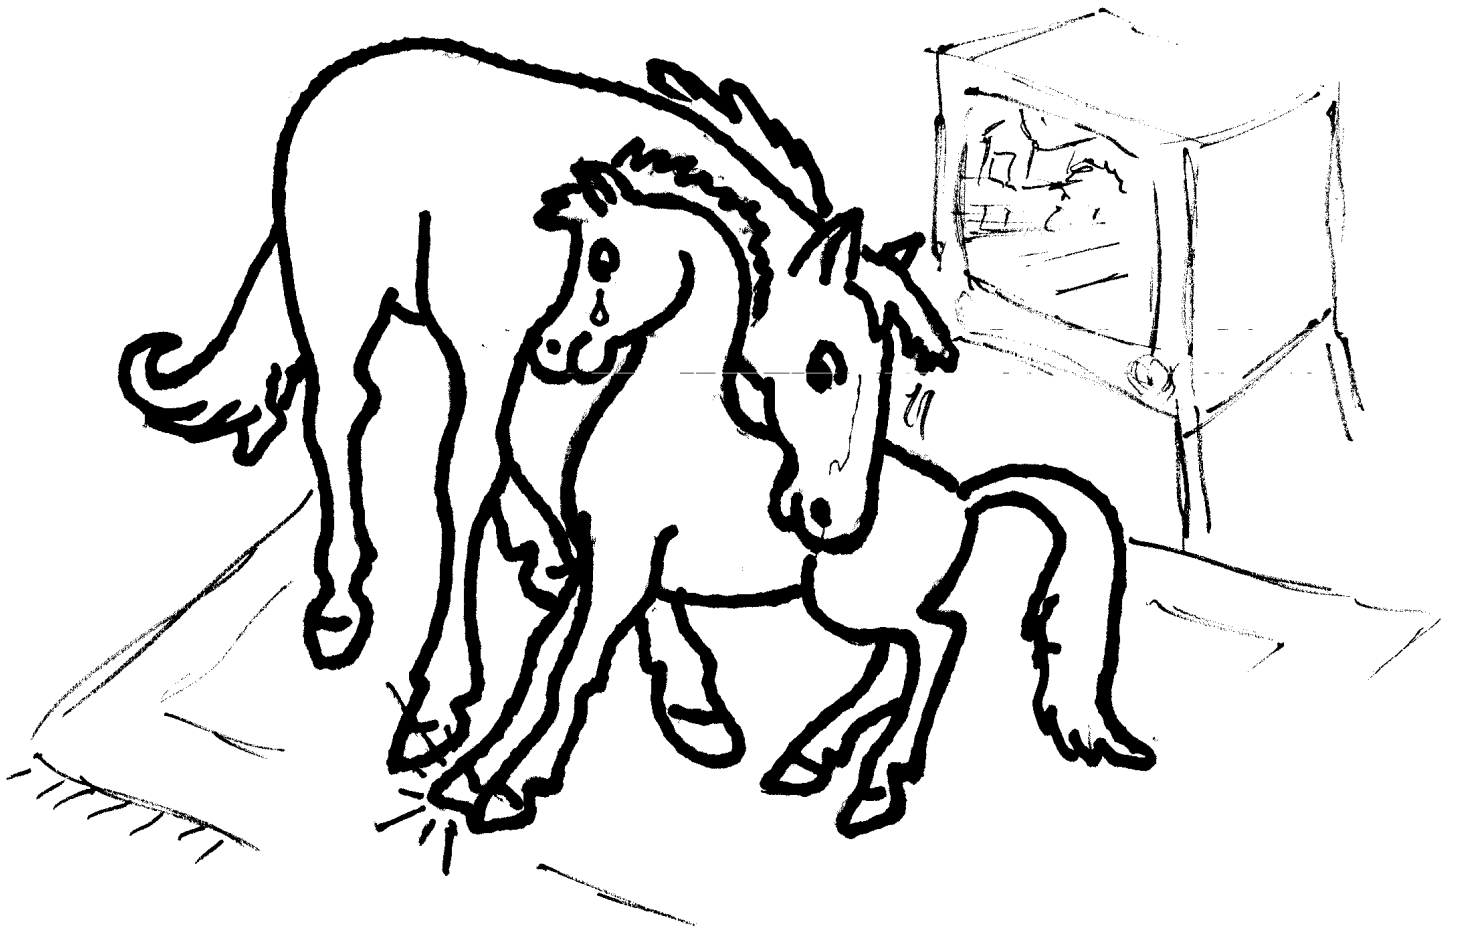

Horsie Named Three liked to play in the mud

Horsie Named Three stepped on a stone and it hurt.

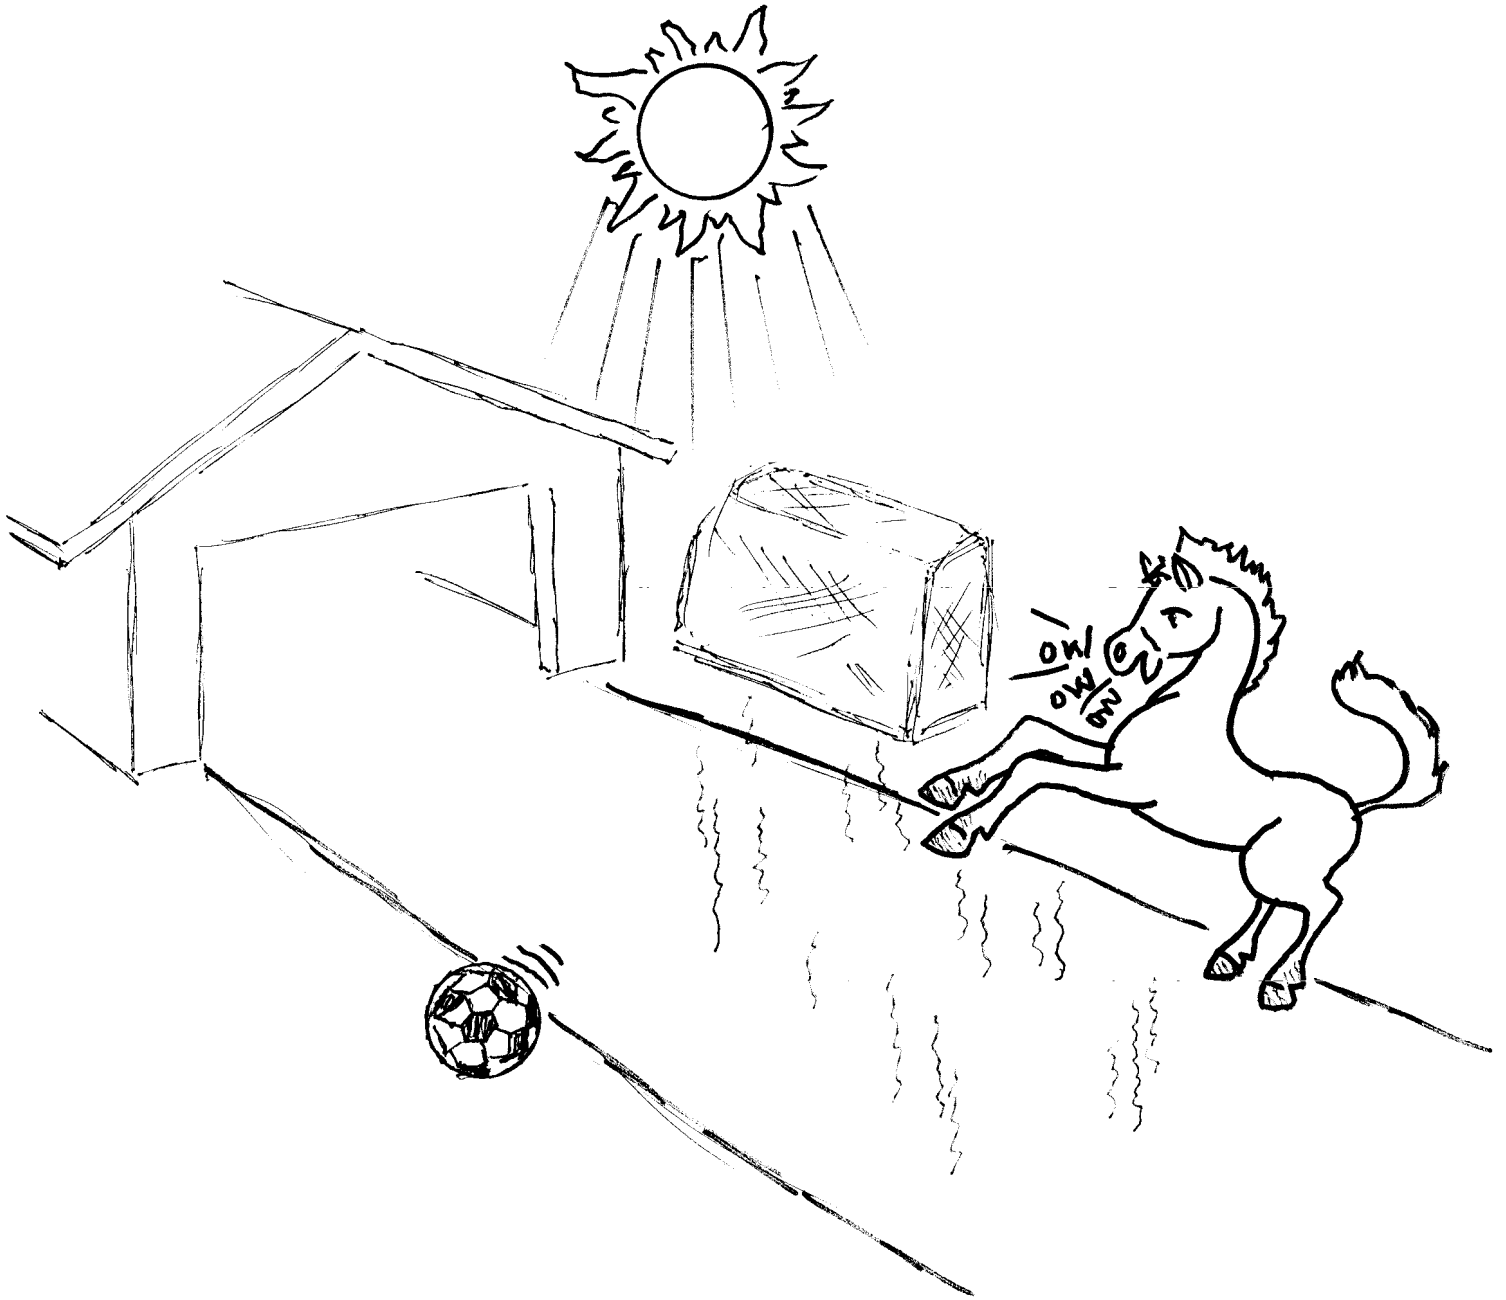

Horsie Named Three was loved by his mother.
She took care of him.

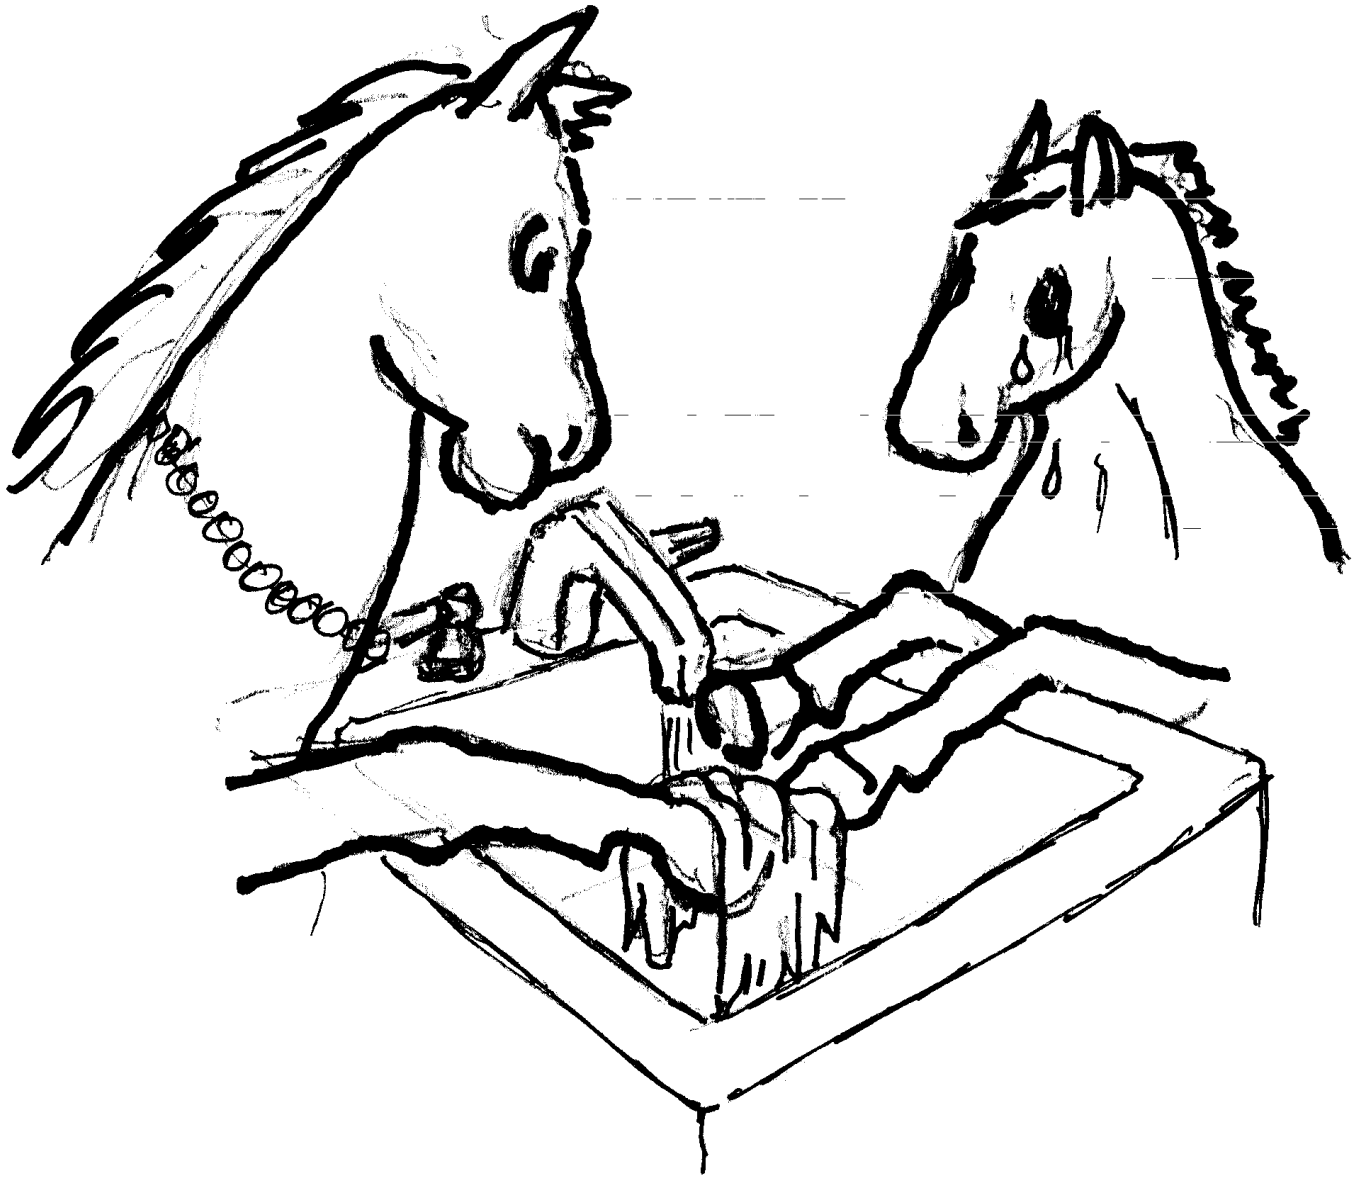

Horsie Named Three plays soccer with his friend Dog.

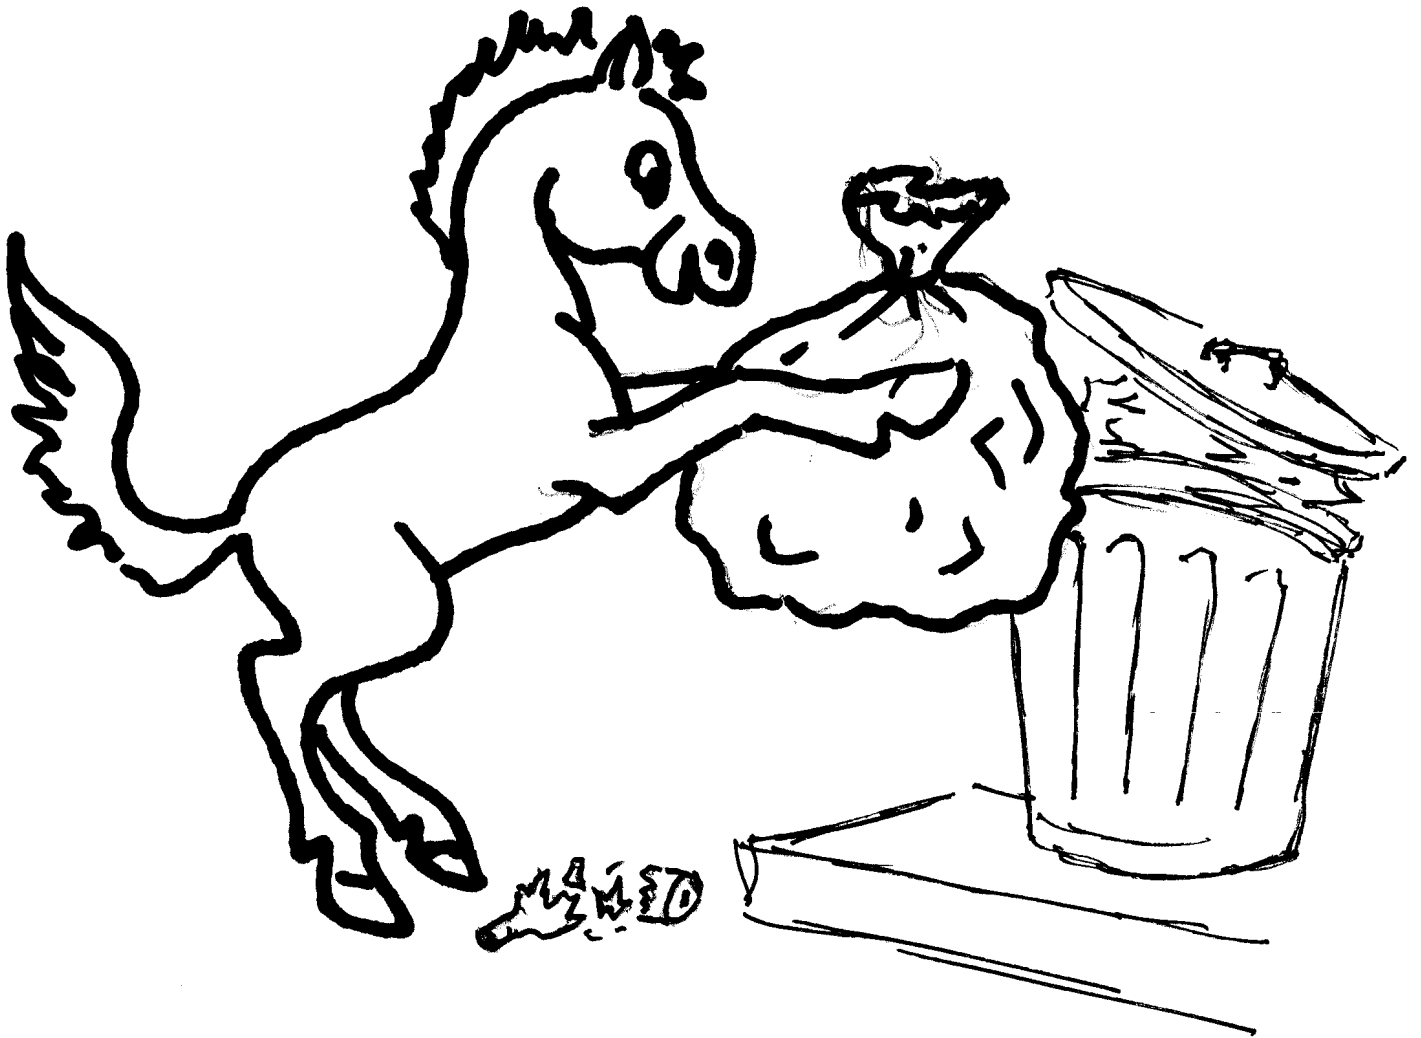

The driveway was very hot.
Horsie Named Three burnt his feet.

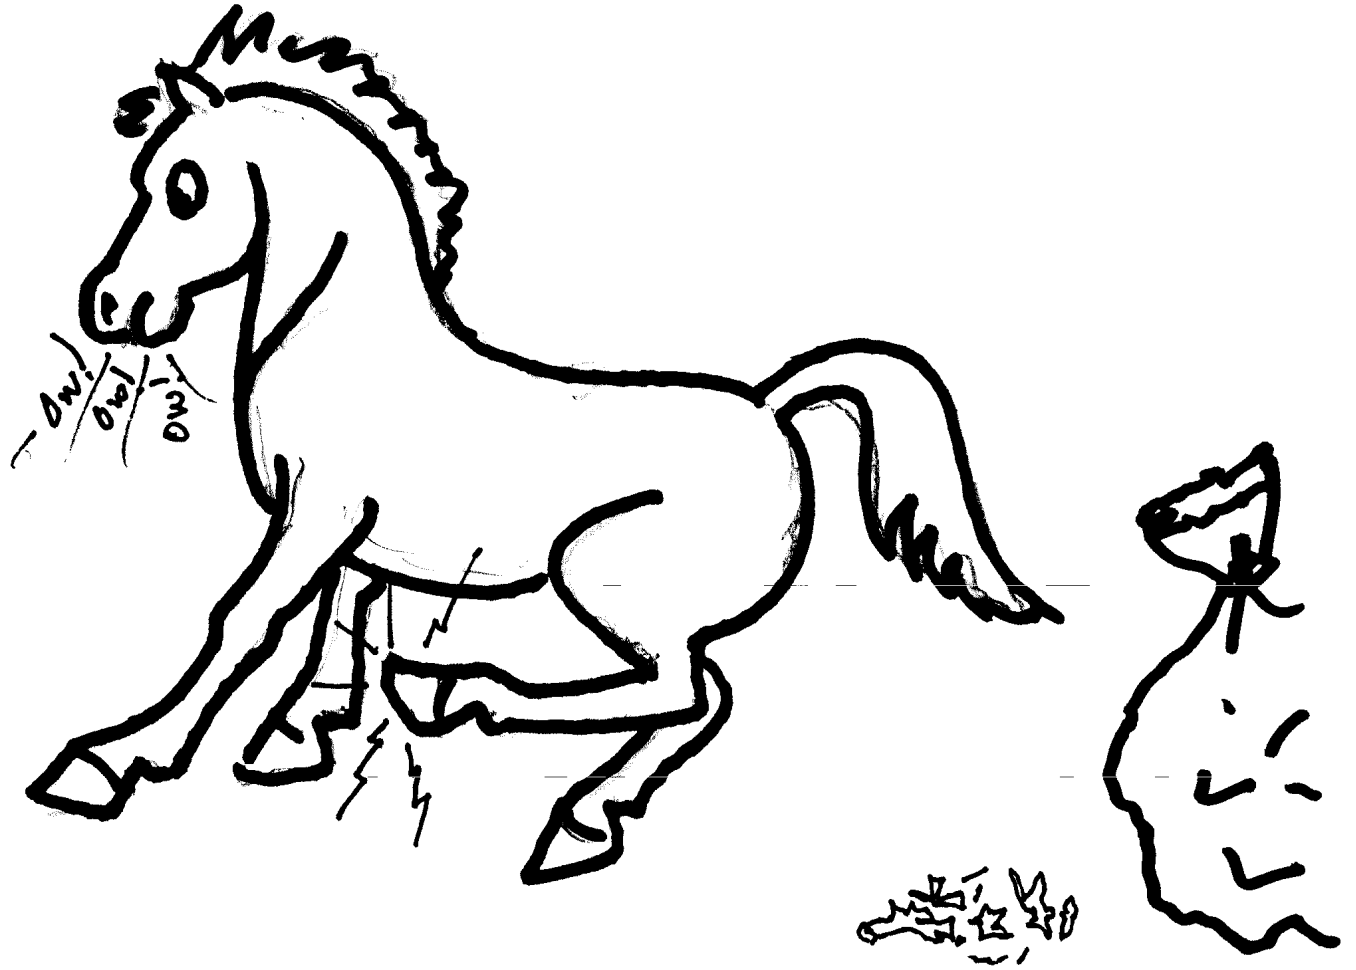

Mom washed Horsie's feet.

Horsie Named Three takes out the garbage.

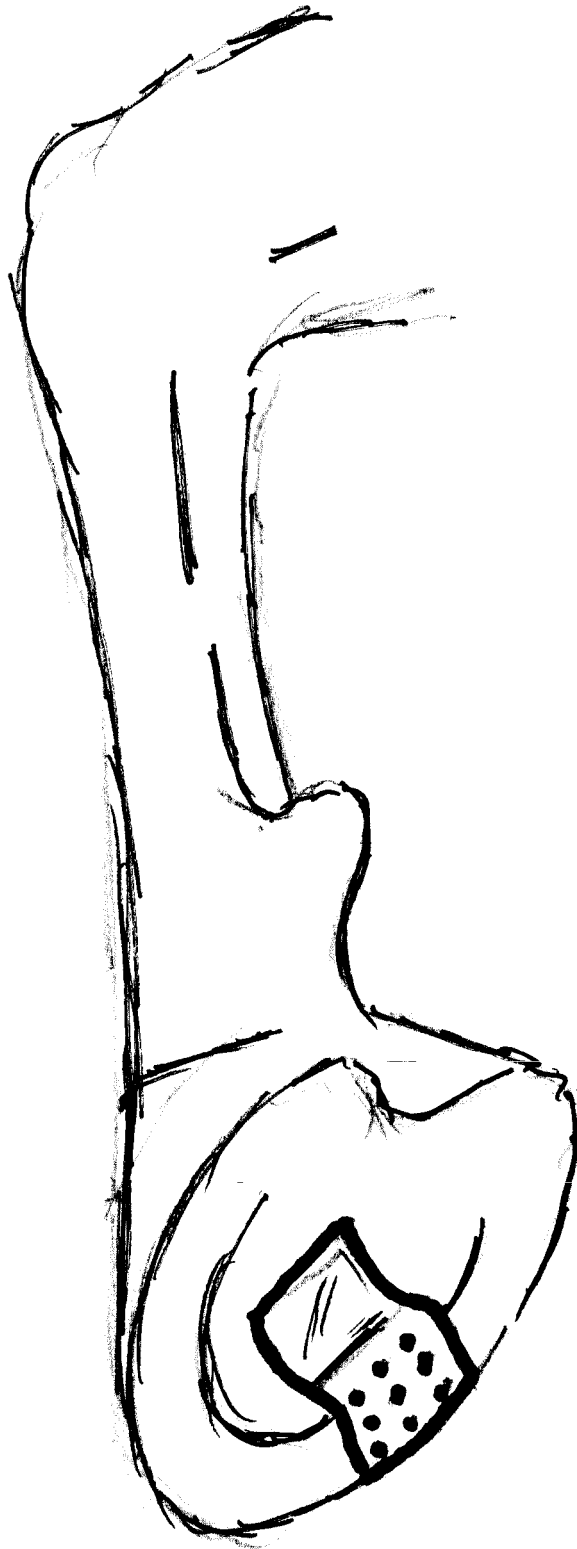

Horsie Name Three stepped on glass.

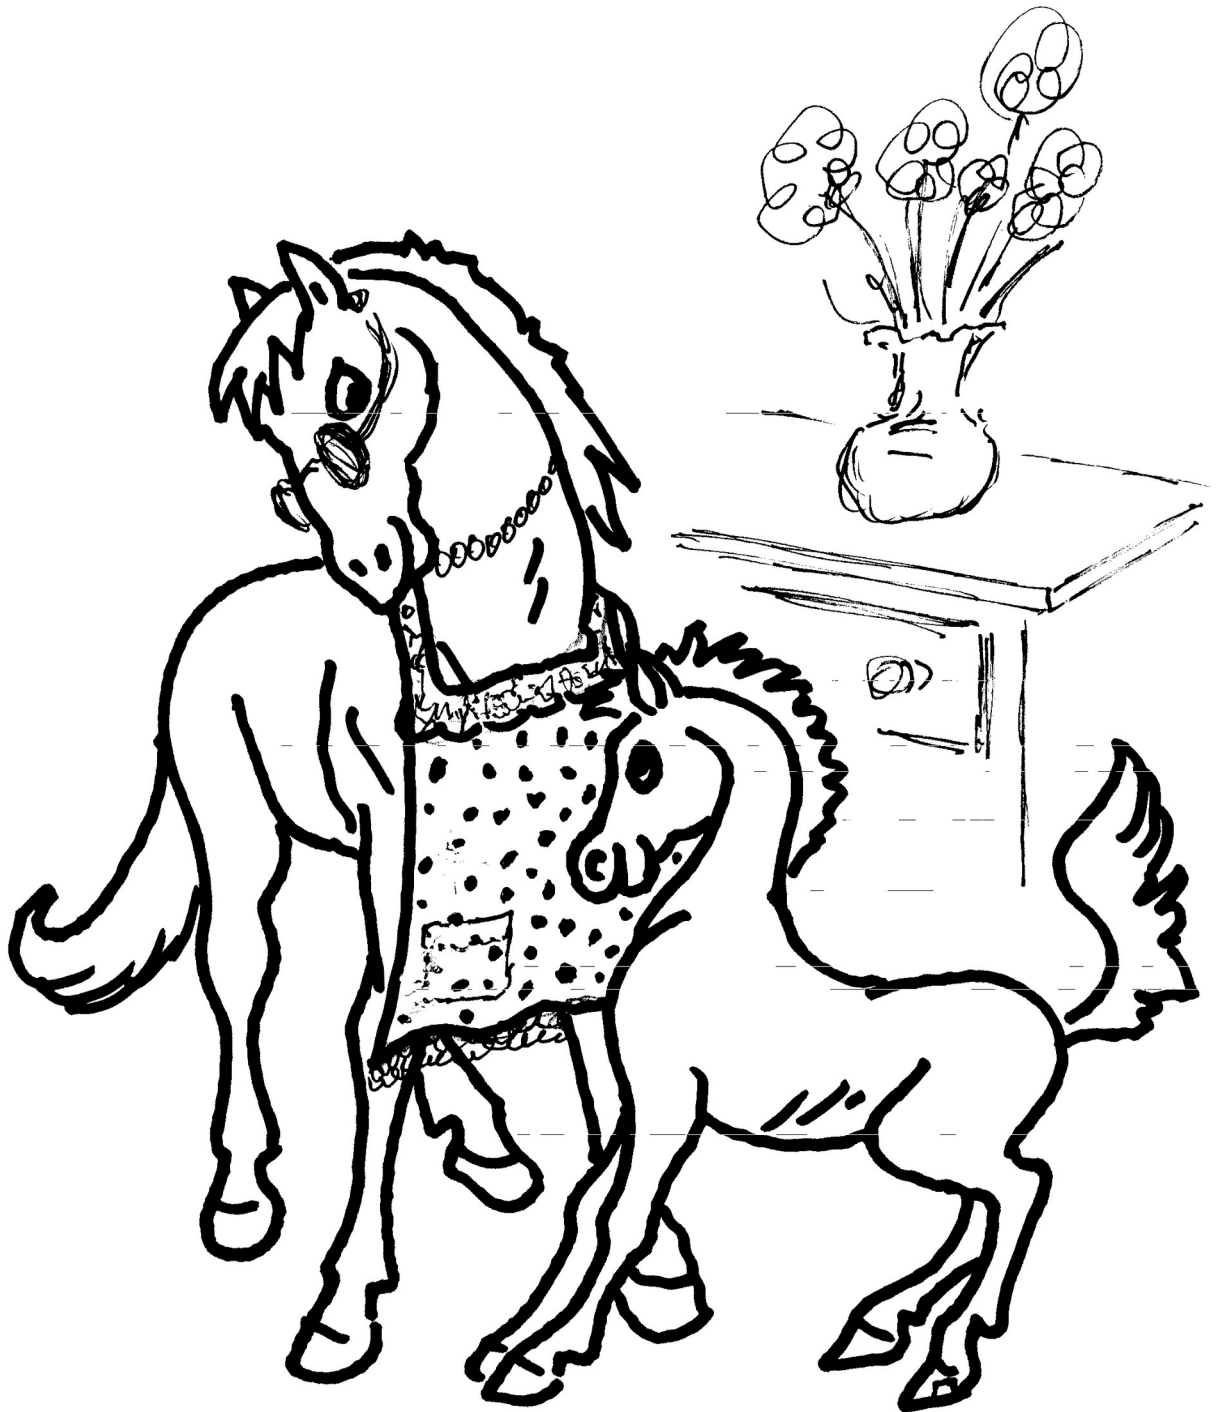

Horsie Name Three looked. His foot was bleeding.

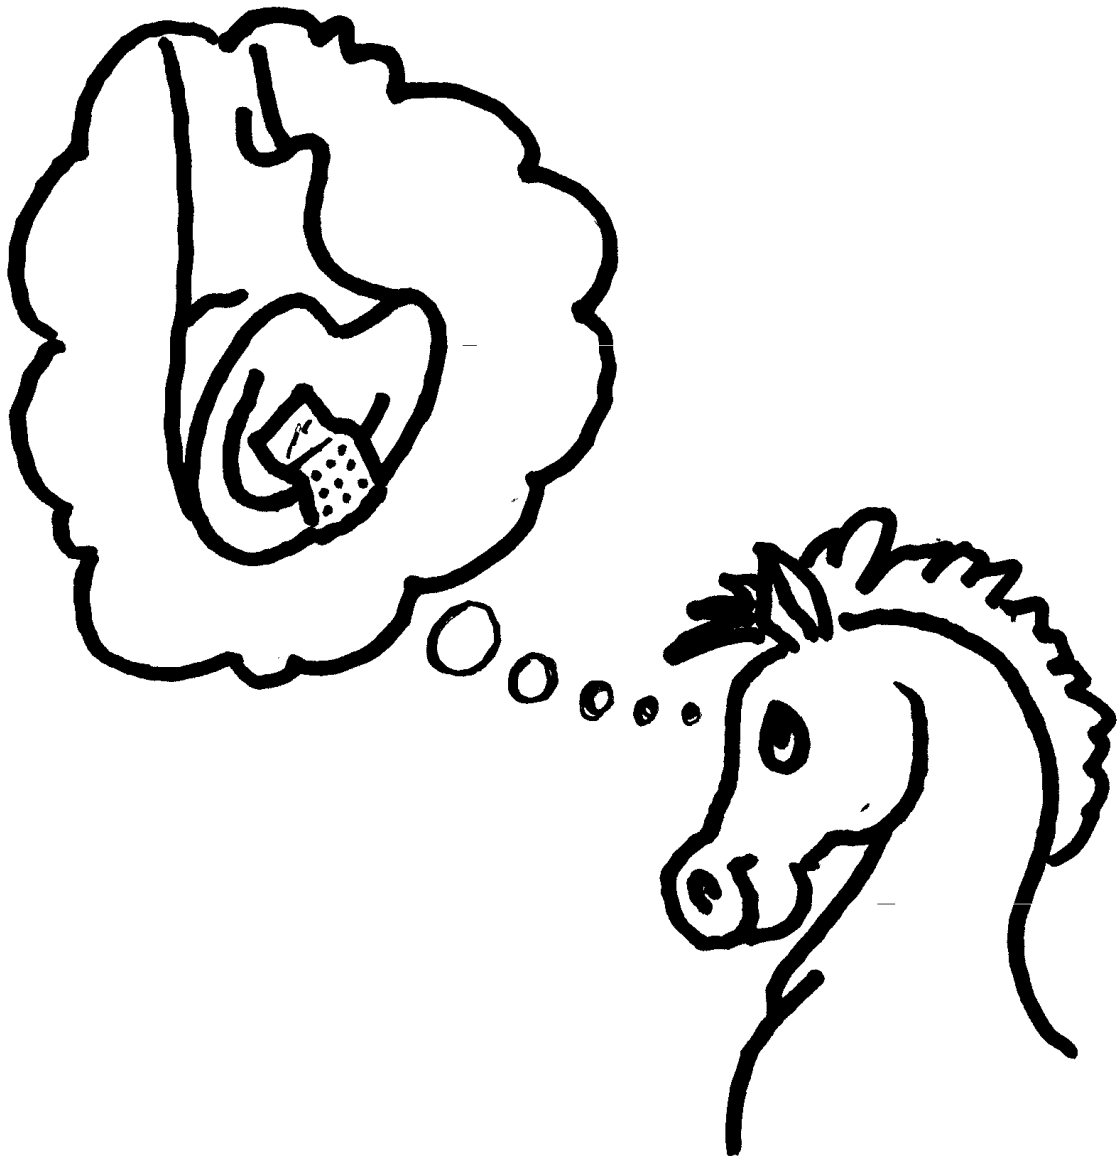

Horsie's mom gave him a bandaid for his cut.

Horsie Name Three and his mom have a talk.

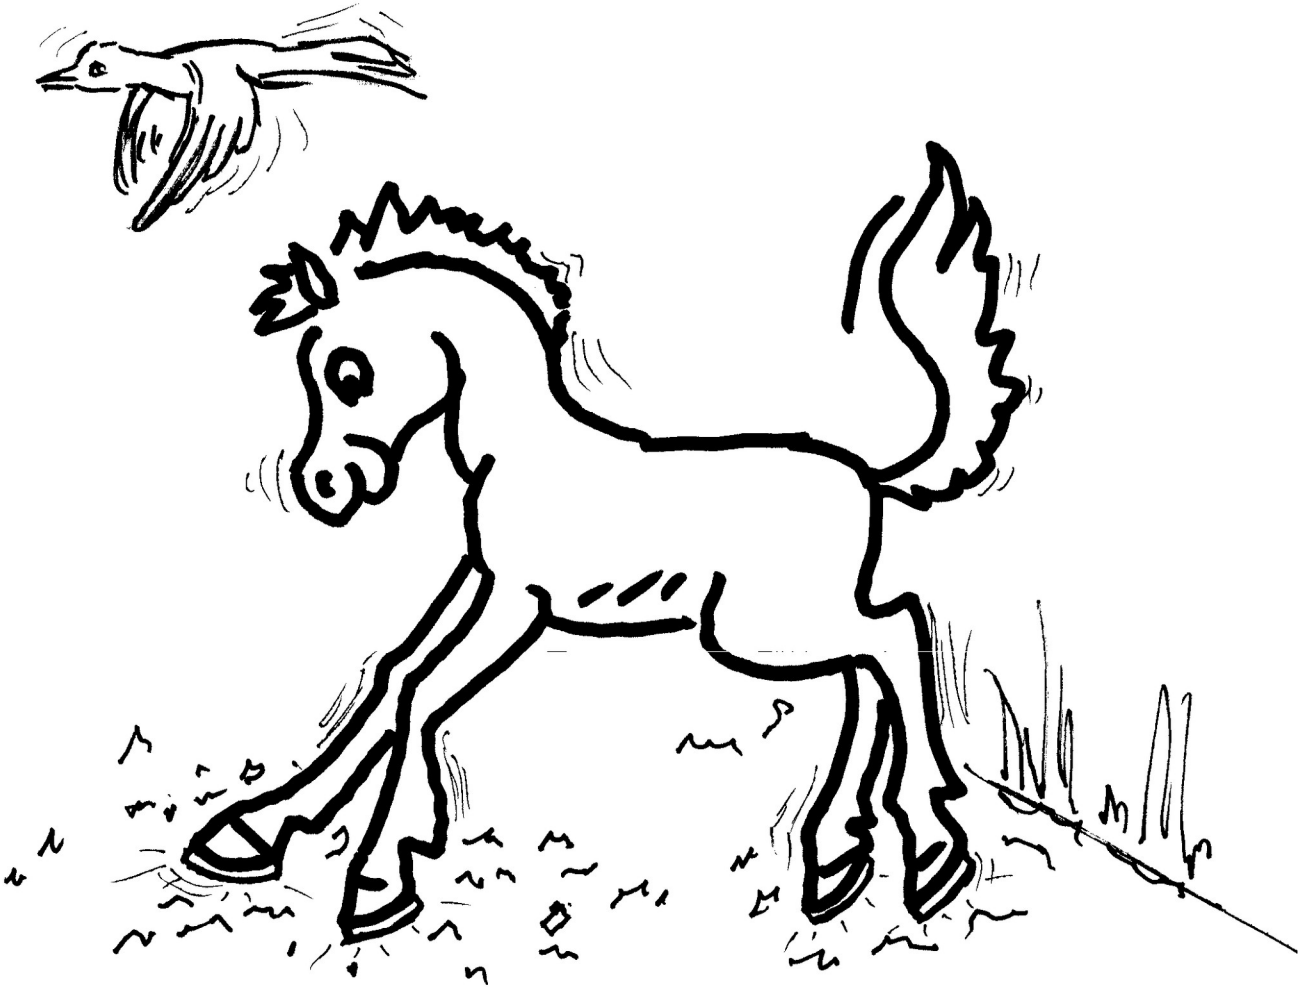

Horsie thinks shoes might not be a bad idea.

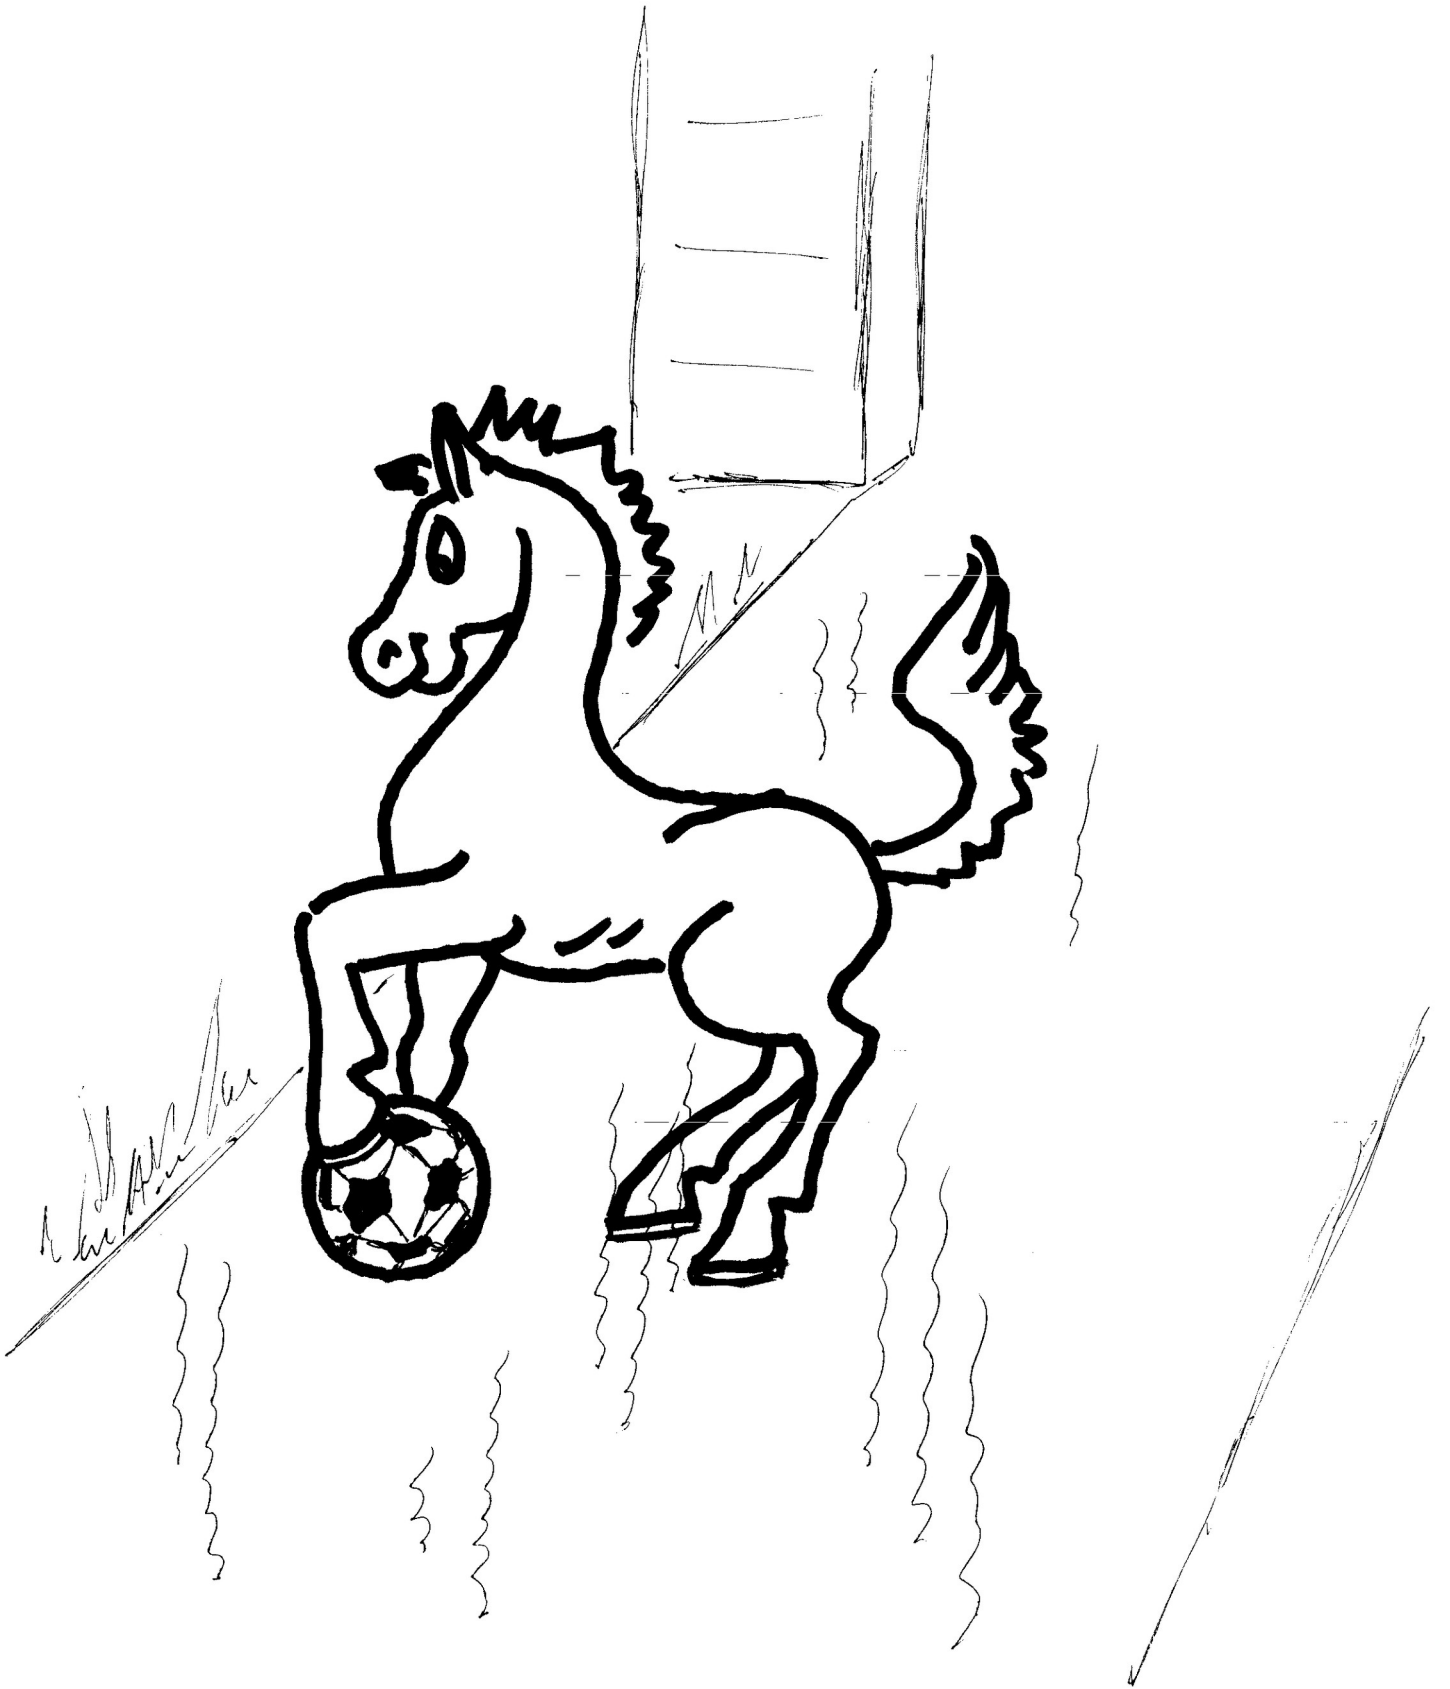

Horsie Name Three shows off his new shoes.

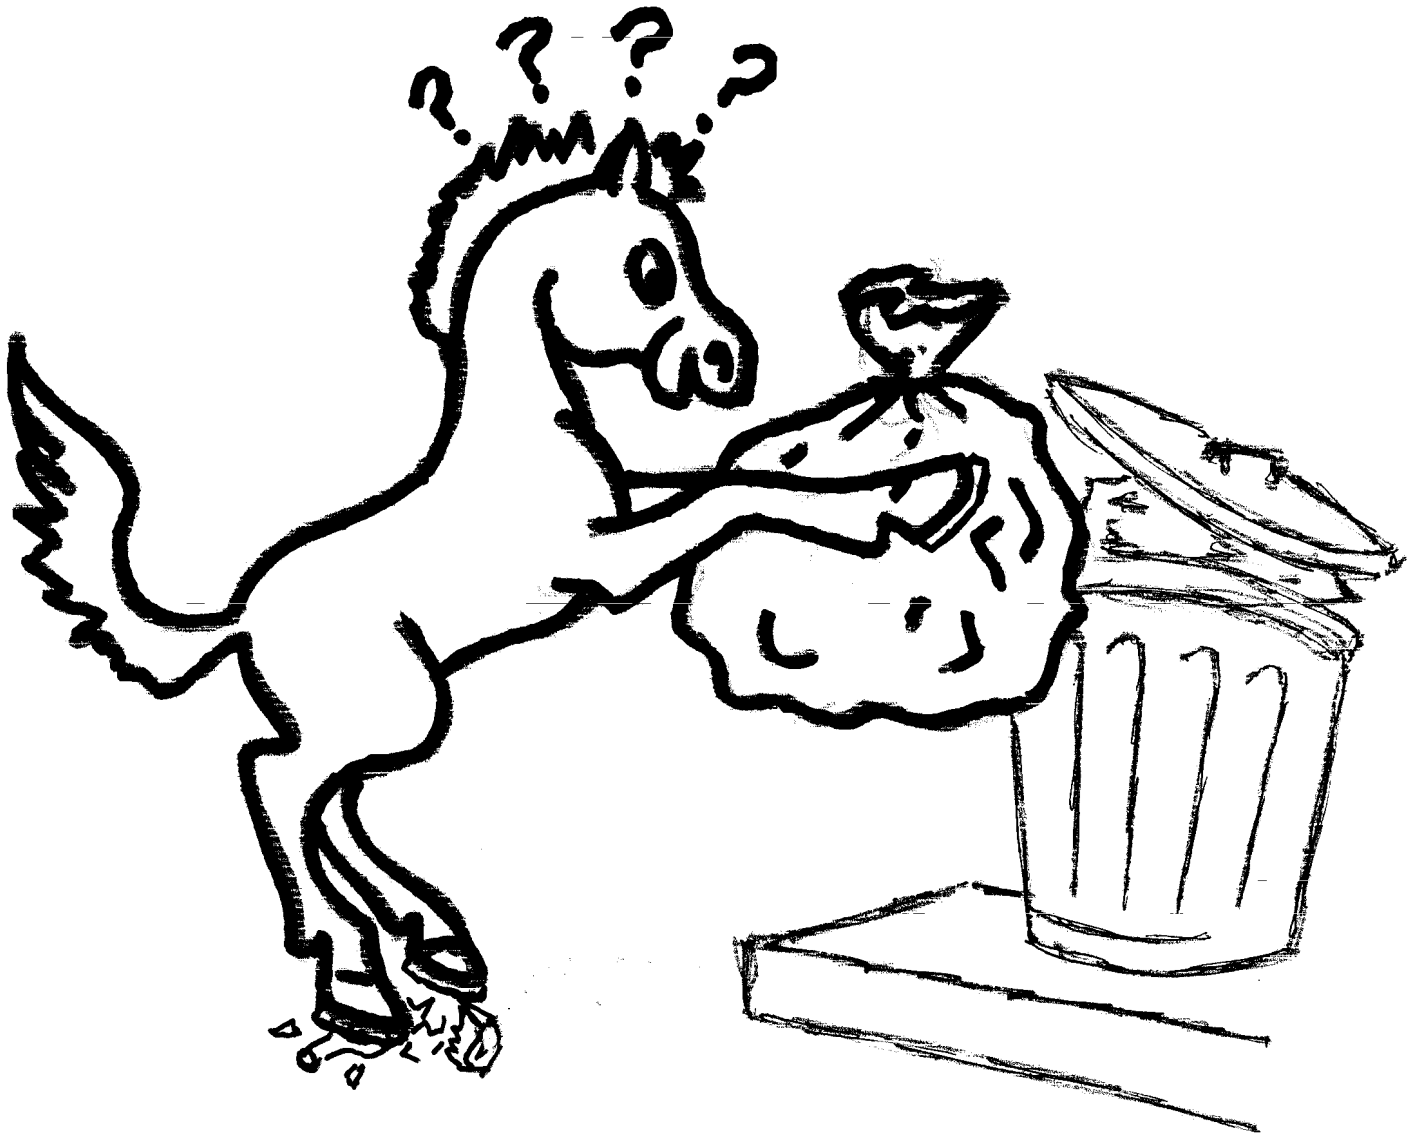

Horsie Name Three plays on the gravel.

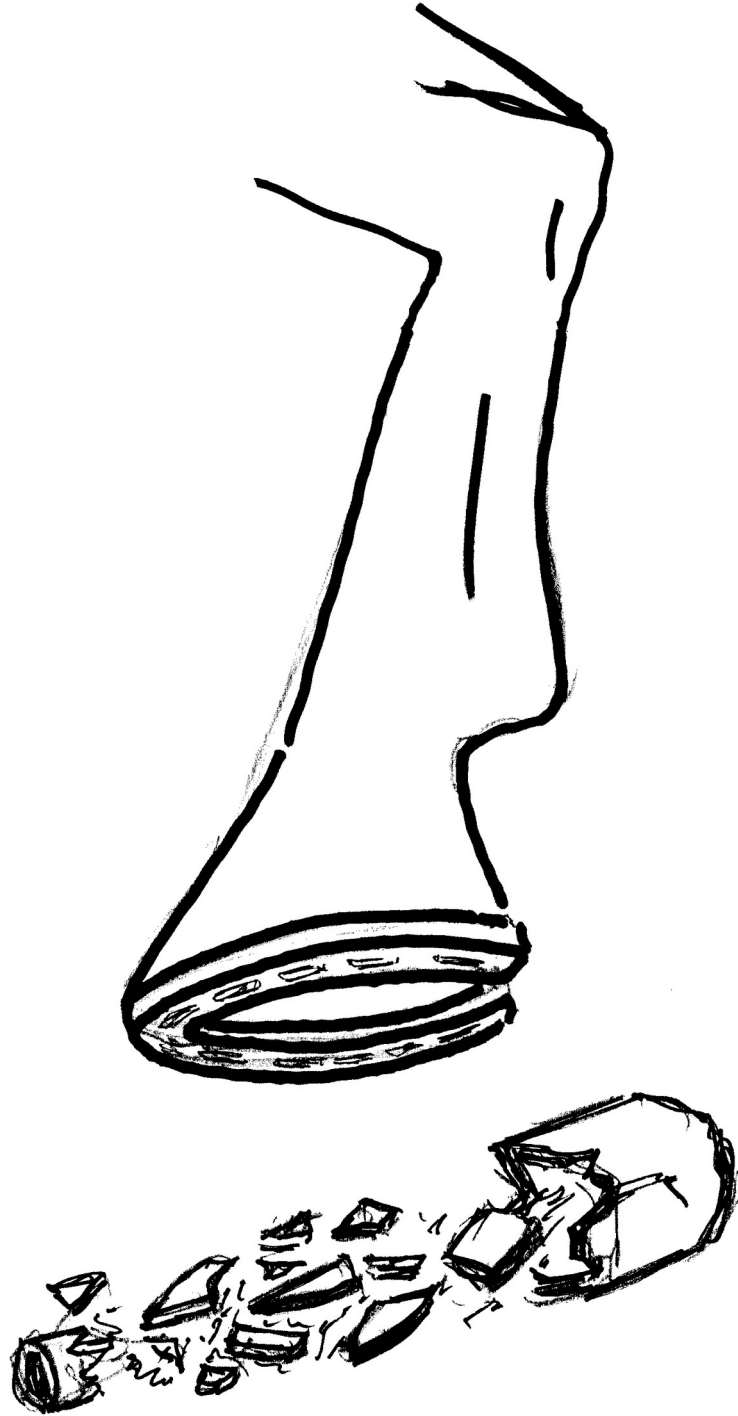

Horsie Name Three has a new soccer ball.

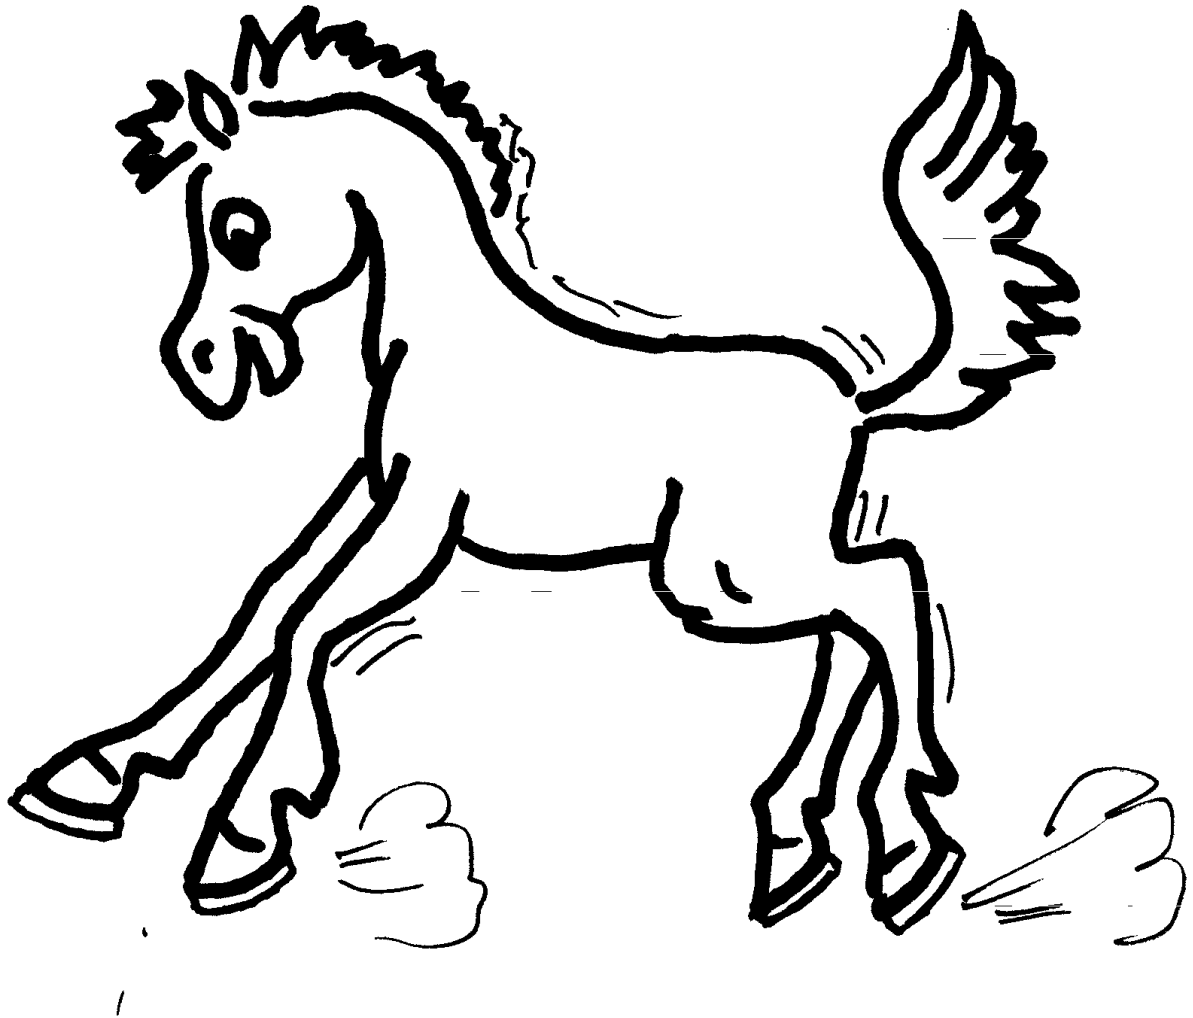

Horsie heard a C-R-U-N-C-H

Horsie saw that his shoes broke the glass.
He didn't even feel it.

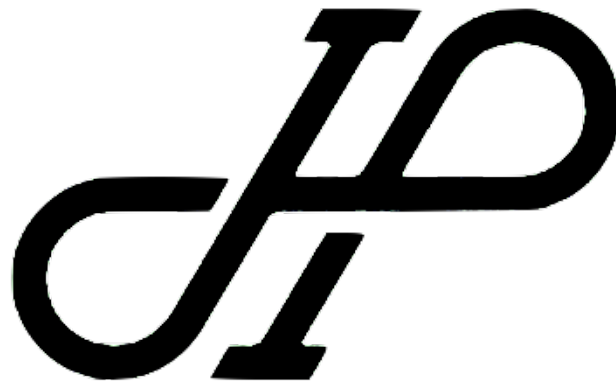

Horsie Name Three is very happy wearing shoes.

This book was published by Jessit Publishing

www.Jessit.com

To purchase the full story book search Amazon for HORSIE NAMED THREE
or visit www.Jessit.com